- 13) as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record, personal history, or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

DEFENDANT: JACOB VILLANUEVA, JR.
CASE NUMBER: 2:12-cr-82-APG-VCF-1

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) You shall not possess, have under your control, or have access to any firearm, explosive device, or other dangerous weapons, as defined by federal, state, or local law.
- 2) To ensure compliance with all conditions of release, you shall submit to the search of your person, and any property, residence, business or automobile under your control by the probation officer, or any other authorized person under the immediate and personal supervision of the probation officer without a search warrant at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner. Provided, however, you shall be required to submit to any search only if the probation officer has reasonable suspicion to believe you have violated a condition or conditions of release.
- 3) You shall participate in and successfully complete a substance abuse treatment and/or cognitive based life skills program, which will include drug/alcohol testing and/or outpatient counseling, as approved and directed by the probation office. You shall refrain from the use and possession of beer, wine, liquor, and other forms of intoxicants while participating in substance abuse treatment. Further, you shall be required to contribute to the costs of services for such treatment, as approved and directed by the probation office based upon your ability to pay.
- 4) You shall participate in and successfully complete a mental health treatment program to assist with anger management and other skills, which may include testing, evaluation, and/or outpatient counseling, as approved and directed by the probation office. You shall refrain from the use and possession of beer, wine, liquor, and other forms of intoxicants while participating in mental health treatment. Further, you shall be required to contribute to the costs of services for such treatment, as approved and directed by the probation office based upon your ability to pay.
- 5) You shall be prohibited from incurring new credit charges, opening additional lines of credit, or negotiating or consummating any financial contracts without the approval of the probation officer.
- 6) You shall provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information, including personal income tax returns, authorization for release of credit information, and any other business financial information in which you have a control or interest.
- 7) You shall use your true name at all times and will be prohibited from the use of any aliases, false dates of birth, social security numbers, places of birth, and any other pertinent demographic information. You shall only use financial accounts, bank accounts and lines of credit issued to you in your own name.
- 8) You shall not have contact, directly or indirectly, associate with, or be within 500 feet of any co-defendant, their residence or business, and if confronted by a co-defendant in a public place, you shall immediately remove yourself from the area.
- 9) You shall report, in person, to the probation office in the district to which you are released within 72 hours of discharge from custody.

Note: A written copy of the conditions of release was provided to the Defendant by the Probation Officer in open Court at the time of sentencing.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Upon finding of a violation of probation or supervised release, I understand that the court may (1) revoke supervision, (2) extend the term of supervision, and/or (3) modify the conditions of supervision.

These conditions have been read to me. I fully understand the conditions and have been provided a copy of them.
